Connia takes a fearless approach to advocating for her clients. Her determination, passion and ability to think outside the box leads to creative solutions and successful outcomes.

Connia practices across broad areas of commercial litigation. Prior to joining Lax O'Sullivan, Connia was a litigation associate at a leading international law firm where she acted on behalf of public corporations, financial institutions and regulatory bodies. Her experience includes contract disputes, securities litigation, class actions, and complex commercial matters.

Connia obtained her J.D. from the University of Western Ontario, and completed her undergraduate at the University of Toronto, majoring in Ethics, Society and Law. She regularly volunteers with Pro Bono Law Ontario serving as duty counsel to unrepresented litigants.
