Jérémie is a pragmatic and results-driven advocate. He achieves his clients' business and strategic goals through creative and analytical problem solving.

Jérémie is building a broad litigation practice. Prior to joining Lax O'Sullivan, Jeremie worked at a national full service law firm. He gained experience in civil litigation, including representing provincial regulators at arbitration proceedings, defending regulatory organizations against negligence claims, and advising clients during insolvency proceedings.

Jérémie received his J.D. from the University of Toronto Faculty of Law in 2019. While at law school, Jeremie excelled at various oral advocacy and business competitions. He placed 1st at the University of Toronto Client Consultation Competition, 1st at the BCG Business Law Case Competition, 2nd at the Hockey Arbitration Competition of Canada, and was a semi-finalist at the Canadian Client Consultation Competition. Academically, he received a Standing of Distinction, ranking in the top 10% of his class, in his graduating year.
